

Location:

Little Saigon San Jose (LSSJ) monument on the tip of the island divided Story Rd, at the intersection between Story Rd, Felipe Ave and Via Ferrari in San Jose.

Description:

Dear Mayor Liccardo,

Dear Council member District 7 Esparza,

On Wed. 01/16/2019 a member of Vietnamese American Community found out the weird, unbalanced, likely-to-roll-over position of the monument and told me to come to view the monument being dislodged and deranged.

I went to the location and saw the monument being moved and the badges and bolts to secure the top part of the monument were broken. I don't know when the monument was vandalized violently like that, but today on Jan 18, 2019 it is still there. I reported the vandalism to the SJPD last night.

I hope that SJ city could help us or at least find out ways to make this residential and business area be safe and well-lit to avoid some criminal activities at night and the vandalism and the graffiti to the monument that have occurred a few times recently.

As for the damaged monument, we plan to replace it with a new one and bring this damaged back to the community to repair. So, we need the city to provide safety when we install the new monument.

We are looking forward to having your assistance and advice.

Sincerely,
